

PHOTO ALBUM

CONSERVATION BY COMMUNITIES

Community Forestry Management
in Sub-Saharan Africa

MARCH 5 - 9, 1999
Obudu Cattle Ranch, Cross River State, Nigeria

Beautiful scenery from Obudu Cattle Ranch

Photo Album Conservation by Communities

Workshop session

*Group photograph of participants after the official opening ceremony at Kizito Attah Lodge, Obudu Cattle Ranch, Cross River
State.*

Participants sometimes worked in groups to think through and articulate issues.

Group from Mt. Elgon National Park, Uganda.

Nigerian Government policy makers and Ford Foundation Program Officers discussing how to create a more enabling environment for community participation in Natural Resource Management.

*The Tanga FMC Group (Mozambique) in session (above).
Old Ekuri and New Ekuri Group (Nigeria) in session (left).*

Chief Esira of New Ekuri (left) and Chief Orji of Old Ekuri (right).

Traditional rulers from Old Ekuri and New Ekuri took an active part in the reception ceremony.

Participants made a one-day visit to Old Ekuri where they got a chance to learn some practical tips on forest stock - survey/ mapping, hunting, medicinal plants, timber and non-timber forest products NTFPs.

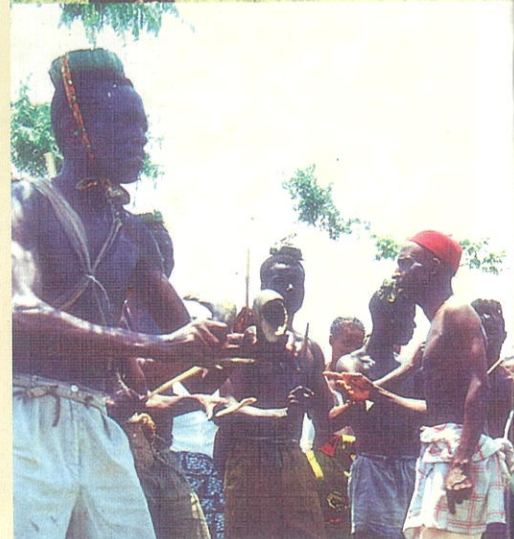

Traditional dancers from Old and New Ekuri.

1 & 2 Traditional dancers from Old and New Ekuri.

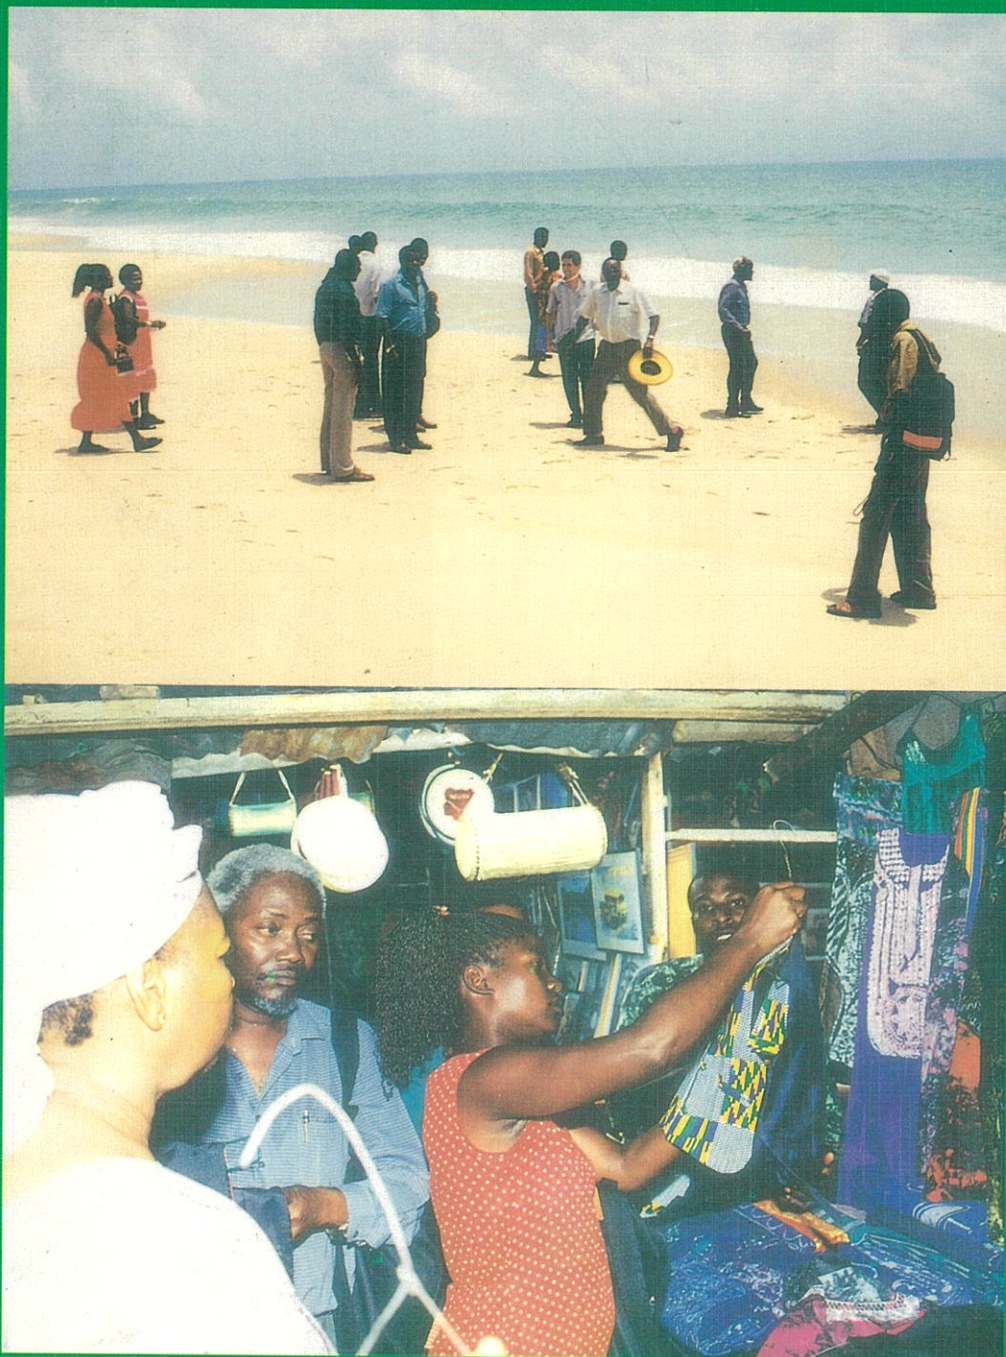

3 After the conference in Obudu, the participants flew back to Lagos in light planes, on March 10, 1999. Some of the participants just before they boarded a Lagos-bound light plane at an airstrip near Obudu

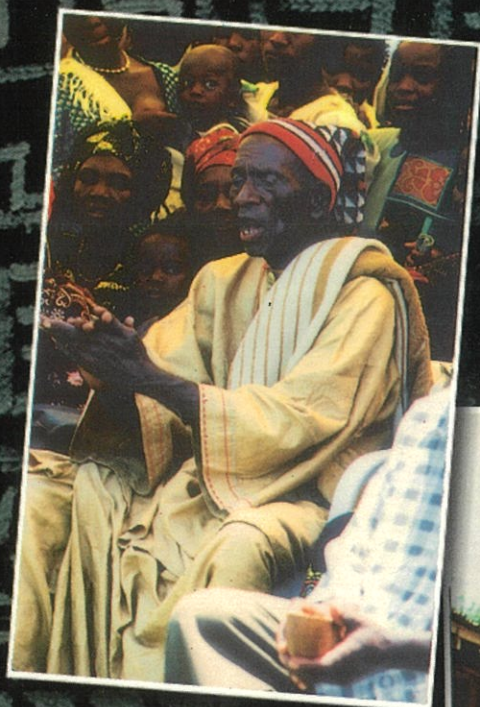

2

Above: Taking time off at Lekki Beach Below: Shopping in Lekki Market.

SO^{by}U
01-4979361, 7741754.